

CATHERINE CLARK

Chief Investment Officer

Catherine Clark is Bedrock's first Chief Investment Officer, where she will be responsible for developing Bedrock's investment strategy, including company initiatives related to investment policy, acquisition opportunities and securing debt and equity. Since its founding, Bedrock and its affiliates have invested and committed more than $5.6 billion to acquiring and developing more than 100 properties, including some of the most significant new developments that Detroit and Cleveland have seen in decades. Bedrock's portfolio totals more than 18 million square feet of office, retail and residential space within new construction and adaptive reuse projects.

Cathy is a 37-year real estate veteran with an extensive background in the industry, including retail, office, multi-family, and senior housing as well as capital allocation and financial and operational intelligence. She has served in roles such as President of C2 Consulting, Vice President of Farmington Mortgage Company and Vice President of Amurcon Corporation.

Prior to joining Bedrock, Cathy co-founded CCR Partners, an advisory and consulting firm focused on commercial real estate solutions. Additionally, she led investment strategy at RPT Realty, a NYSE company, where she worked for 22 years, completing in excess of $6 billion in real estate transactions. She most recently served as their Executive Vice President of Transactions.

Cathy is a licensed real estate broker in the State of Michigan and serves in a leadership capacity on both national and local ULI Product Councils. She is on the Advisory Board of the Marshall Bennett Institute of Real Estate at Roosevelt University in Chicago, serving on the Curriculum Committee. She volunteers at the Beaumont Hospital Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU), as well as the Oakland County Literacy Council as a tutor to English as a Second Language (ESL) students.
